

CROSSWORD PUZZLE - 1

CYBER SECURITY CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE
cscoe-itewb.gov.in

ACROSS

1. An act of secretly listening to the private conversation.
2. Device that provides a service to another computer program and its user.
3. A malware encrypts victim's files, lock the computer and demands a ransom.
4. Typically a secret string of characters.
5. An email that usually contains a link to a fake website that looks authentic.
6. An attack that tricks a user into clicking a webpage element which is invisible or disguised.
7. On-demand availability of data storage.
8. Set of computers sharing resources.
9. One Time Password.
10. Assures that the information is accurate, consistent and trustworthy during its entire life cycle.

DOWN

1. The process of encoding information.
2. Derived from the word robot, a malware designed to automatically perform action much faster than human.
3. An internet version of a home address for your computer.
4. A computer expert who uses technical knowledge to gain access to a system.
5. Open Web Application Security Project.
6. A defensive technology designed to keep the bad guys out.
7. An audio or video clip that has been edited and manipulated to seem real or believable.
8. Designed to capture keystrokes made by a user.

Mail your answer to: [isolvedthepuzzle\[dot\]cscoe\[at\]nltr\[dot\]org](mailto:isolvedthepuzzle[dot]cscoe[at]nltr[dot]org)
Mention your Name, Address and Mobile Number